

Duncan Davies is a British-Australian senior manager based in Beecroft, Australia. Duncan is responsible for Quality at Australia Post and has been with the company for 9 years (to current) having been appointed to the position of General Manager in 2013.

Duncan believes in actively giving back to the community through his volunteering, especially where his daughters are receiving the benefit of amazing not-for-profit associations.

Duncan is:

- Vice President P&C Cheltenham Girls High
- NWST Committee member,
- Manager of Beecroft Netball Club BNC19 team
- Manager of NWST Interdistrict team NWST16
- Member Protection Information Officers (MPIO) at NWST,
- Tennis Australia Volunteer Official
- Project manager of NWST's Strategic Plan.
- Active NWST BBQ & working bee volunteer,

Duncan is dedicated to creating a tennis community at NWST where everyone feels welcome, included, and represented whilst being imaginative, humble, collaborative and always striving for excellence.

Early life and education

Duncan was born in Hull, Yorkshire in the United Kingdom, the youngest of 4 children. The family emigrated to South Africa in the early 1970's.

Duncan attended St Andrews School in Bloemfontein, South Africa where he started playing tennis in primary school and squash in secondary school playing in various interschool competitions before preferencing squash and competing in the men's league for many years. Duncan attended the University of Wales after returning to the United Kingdom in 1999, and holds an MBA from the University of Wales Business School.

Career

Duncan early career was in South Africa and was appointed as Divisional Executive in a South African national logistics firm prior to returning to the United Kingdom. He worked from global logistics firm TNT/Fedex in the UK with responsibility for strategic projects and programs before being appointed to the position of General Manager in early 2007.

Duncan was transferred to Australia in mid-2009 as General Manager of TNT/Fedex Australia responsible for optimisation of field operations.

In 2013, Duncan moved to Australia Post as General Manager where is today.

Personal life

Duncan is married to Nicolene, a South African and British solicitor (no longer practicing). They have two daughters, Catie (13) and Arianne (11).

Both Catie and Arianne are active members of North West Sydney Tennis and have played in NWST's Saturday Junior comp since 2020 and are beneficiaries of both Voyager coaching and In the Zone coaching with Senaka Subasinghe.

The family have lived in Beecroft since 2013 with both children attending Arden Anglican Primary school and Catie attending Cheltenham Girls High School.

